

“Our Olympic Future”

National Sports Congress
30 May 2009

NAOC: Netherlands Antilles
Olympic Committee

NAOC → 23 March 1931
Internationally 205 NOC's

NAOC is the international recognized authority to develop the Olympic movement on all five islands in cooperation with different local sports organizations

30 Member Federations

20 Olympic Sports federations

3 Recognized federations (Chess, Bowling, Karate)

4 Extra ordinary members

Statia Sports Federation
Bonaire Sports Federation
St. Maarten Sports Federation

National responsibilities NAOC

1. Support towards member federations
2. Professional guidance sport talents
3. Policy development
4. Consultation towards government(s)
5. Upgrading Sport administrators
6. Promotion Olympic ideals
7. Courses & Workshops

International responsibilities NAOC:

"Preparation and participation of Antillean Sport delegations"

1. Olympic Games (London 2012)
2. Pan American Games (Guadalajara-Mexico 2011)
3. Youth Olympic Games (Singapore 2012)
4. Central American and Caribbean Games (Mayagüez-Puerto Rico 2010)
5. South American Games (Medellin-Colombia 2010)
6. Kingdom Games (Aruba 2009)
7. Caribbean Games (Trinidad & Tobago 2009)

• First steps Olympic Future

1. Strong internal sport organization
2. Sports federations Saba & Curacao member of NAOC
3. Intensified communication with islands
4. Relation grass roots level - topsport
5. Longterm Strategic plan
6. Investments in organizations, boardmembers,coaches, athletes, (paramedical) experts
7. Annual Olympic sports congress

Change NAOC

1. Funding
2. Adapted Model board of Directors
3. Adapted structure of operations

In cooperation with all stakeholders

Funding NAOC & Federations

1. Landsloterij Ang 500.000,00 (2010)
2. Sponsors on all islands (Marketing Program)
3. Funding local governments
4. Olympic Solidarity
5. Fundraising events

Internal Change NAOC

1. Funding
2. Adapted Model board of Directors
(Independent NAOC commission since Feb. 2009)
3. Adapted structure of operations
(NAOC visit islands June-July 2009)

Modern communication tools

1. Videoconference board meetings
2. Newsletters via email
3. New website
<http://www.naoc.info>

<http://www.naoc.info>

The screenshot shows the NAOC website homepage with a navigation menu (HOME, OLYMPICS, YOUTH GAMES, GAMES, OLYMPIANS, SPORTS, EVENTS) and several news articles. The main article is titled "Olympic funding safeguarded" and discusses the transfer of funding from the Ministry of Education, Culture and Science to NAOC. Other articles include "Kingdom Games" and "Motto 'Citius, Altius, Fortius'".

"Thank you !"

National Sports Congress
30 May 2009
